In the Federal court yesterday permission was granted Phillip S. Maycock to reactive law in that court. Mr. Maycock is to incomber of the firm of Thomas & Maycock.

Jacob A. Chatterton, a brakeman in the employ of the Oregon Short Line, filed a petition in bankruptoy in the Federal court yesterday. His liabilities were fixed at $127,00 with assets at $107.80.

The Misionary society of the Swedish church will neet at 8:20 o'clock tonight at the residence of S. P. Anderson, 165 Myrtle street. Persons desiring to atend will reach the place by taking a Waterloo car to Water street and walking two blocks west.

Another reservoir of natural gas was encountered Tuesday evening in the Guffy & Gailey oil well at Farmington, when for some time the water and mud was hurled to the height of the derrick. The spurting had practically ceased yesterday and the force was engaged in cleaning up for the resumption of drilling, which it is expected will take place today. Monto Gothe and Henry Tietjen were brought back from Ogden vesterday and locked up in the city jail. When arrested at Ogden they were trying to sell two bleycles, having ridden the wheels from Salt Lake. The boys admit that the blkes were stolen, but the owners have not yet been found. The machines are held at the police station for identification.

Mayor Morris yesterday approved th Mayor Mofris yesterony approved the following spointments nade by Chief of Police Lynch and confirmed by the City Council Monday night. These are the appointments: George H. Moore as patrolman; Henry P. Burns as fireman at police headquarters; Joseph W. Burt as night jailor and Edward W. Palmer as patrolman to fill the vacancy made by the promotion of Officer Burt.

Hereafter prisoners who want to escape from the city jall will be put to the trouble of walking downstairs. The dumb-waiter, which has been used as an elevator by departing tenants of the jall, is being walled up. Meals will be carried up and down the steps by trustes. As few of the prisoners have energy enough to descend the stairs except under compulsion, escapes will, it is believed, become less frequent in the future.

Belief in Christian Science is spreading rapidly in all parts of the country, according to Judge Septimus Hanna, the Scienuce lecturer, who registered with his wife at the Knutsford hotel yesterday. He has just returned from a lecturing tour of the coast States and Idaho, Judge Hanna declines the title 'missionary, and says that the Scientists make no attempt to proselyte save by explaining their beliefs in public lectures. This is his first visit to Sait Lake and he predicts a great future for the city.

All of the students attending the Lat-

All of the students attending the Lat-All of the students attending the Lat-ber-day Saints' university have been in-vited to attend a faculty reception at the buildings this evening. The invitation was extended by the president of the faculty at the general school assembly yesterday morning. The details of the entertainment are kept a secret by the faculty, but it known that some enjoyable features will be presented. Prof. Milis lectured before the student assembly yes-terday on "Concentration," and Col. Tat-lock spoke words of good cheer.

H. Girard, obtaining money under false pretenses; Wesley Thomas, burglary; George P. Trunhill, same; Fred Engelke, same; John H. Lee, Jr., same; Wilkinson Curwin, highway robbery; R. W. Lister, sane; F. E. Herron, adultery; Andrew Marx, illegal voting, Commutation, F. Von Falkenstein, Parole, J. C. Wilkinson.

The latest victim of the vicious boy and the ley snowball is W. H. Foster, an aged wood turner, who was struck in the eye by one of the dangerous missies while driving in the vicinity of the Grant school Tuesday afternoon. A crowd of boys assailed the old man with snowballs when one of them struck him squarely in the eye, inflicting a very painful injury. Mr. Foster was removed to the office of Dr. Stauffer, who found it necessary to perform a delicate operation in order to save the sight of the eye. A number of similar cases have courred recently, where elderly persons have been more or less seriously burt, and the authorities will attempt to put a stop to the indiscriminate snow-halling.

NEW PASTOR CHOSEN BY LOCAL METHODISTS

Rev. Benjamin Young of Denver Named by Bishop Cranston to Succeed Rev. J. C. Bickel as Pastor of the First Methodist Church.

bury Park Methodist church of Denver. was last evening named to succeed Rev. J. C. Bickel of the First Methodist church of this city, who has just accepted the appointment of superintendent of the Wyoming mission. The announcement of the appointment of Rev. Dr. Young came as a complete surprise to the large congregation gathered last ocial in honor of Rev. H. J. Talbot, D.D., who succeeds Rev. Dr. Leilich as superintendent of the Methodist mis-

Judge Marshall, of the Federal court, vesterday beard a petition for temporary injunction in the case of the United States against C. R. Fotts. The court was asked to issue an order prohibiting Fotts from driving a herd of 1,500 cartic upon the Unitah forest reservation. The petition was depled with Rishon Cranston immediate. held with Bishop Cranston immediately upon the arrival of Dr. Young, but the final decision in the matter was not made until just before the recognition meeting at the church last even-

A WESTERN MAN.

Rev. Dr. Young is practically a Western man, having spent the greater part of his life in this portion of the country. He was educated at Grant university and the University of Wyoming, and had been engaged in religious work in Wyoming for several years before being called to his Denver charge. At the time of his re-moval to Colorado he was pastor of the First Methodist church of Cheyenne, and four years ago this winter was chaplain of the State Senate of Wyoming. The work of Dr. Young in Denver has been successful to a high degree and he is considered one of the strongest men in the Methodist church in the West. He will leave for Denver tonight or tomorrow, and will return to resume active charge of the First church twobably the last Sunday in

VERY ENJOYABLE TIME.

Bishon Cranston made the announce close of a most entertaining pro-gramme. Rev. Samuel Blair of Ogden offered the invocation, followed by an address on behalf of the clergy by Rey E. E. Mork. Judge George F. Goodwin spoke in behalf of the laity, followed by an address by J. C. McClain. Bishop Cranston in a happy vein introduced the new superintendent, Rev. J. H. Talbot, D.D., who responded in an equally happy vein. On behalf of the visiting clergy Dr. Wishard extended to the new superintendent a most cordial waterways. dial welcome, assuring him of the hearty co-operation of all the ministers of the city in his work for the church and humanity. Then Bishop Cranston surprised the congregation by the anpuncement of Dr. Young's appoint-ent, introducing the new pastor after referring briefly to his work, espe cially in the Denver church. Dr. Young spoke for a few minutes of the work he hopes to do here, of the work he hoper to have done by the members of the congregation, his remarks being warmly received.
